

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE
Of the
WYOMING SECTION
SOCIETY FOR RANGE MANAGEMENT

PURPOSE

This committee is responsible for developing a list of eligible candidates for each elective office in accordance with the by-laws of the Wyoming Section-SRM. (It is essential that the actions of this Committee be careful, fair, judicious and timely.)

STRUCTURE

The President shall recommend and the Council shall elect a Nominations Committee, including the Chair, who are knowledgeable about the duties of the positions to be filled and the goals of the Wyoming Section-SRM. (The Nominations Committee is elected at the Annual Fall Meeting.)

FUNCTION

To follow the adopted Nominations Procedure in developing eligible candidates for ballots. (Article IV, Section 2.)

Duties of Committee Members:

1. Contact members for obtaining possible nominees for President-Elect and Council. Members contacted should represent different geographical areas, professions and interests.
2. Contact recommended nominees to determine their willingness to be considered. Those expressing such willingness will be asked to provide a biographical abstract that will contain:
 - a. Active participation in the Society for Range Management.
 - b. Recent activities at the Section level.
 - c. Education and training pertaining to the goals of the Section.
 - d. Professional experience in Range Management.
3. Screen the abstracts and select persons for President-Elect and for Council.

Duties of Committee Chair:

1. To send a follow-up letter verifying the willingness of the nominees selected to stand for election.
2. To provide the abstracts of the nominees selected to the Newsletter Editor for publication with copy to the President.

Duties of the Secretary/Treasurer:

1. Ballots will be returned to the Secretary/Treasurer who will notify the President of the results in writing. (Article IV, Section 5 of the Wyoming Section By-laws.)

Duties of the President:

1. Notify the Council of the election results.
2. Notify the members at large attending the Annual meeting of the election results.